

Roar

THE LOOK

"I got caught up in the idea of this white, wintery goddess...the fan from the wind blowing in her hair and playing with that," the charismatic owner of Roar Salon, Rory McNeil, says. He's been doing hair for 16 years and opened Roar in downtown Austin four years ago this February. "I love my clients — the interactions, relationships and being creative every day," he says. "I love having a job where people are happy to see you." His advice for the New Year? "Just be you! And, smile like you mean it!"
